ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER RE: APPOINTING
TEMPORARY JUDGE UNDER CALIFORNIA
RULES OF COURT, RULE 2.810(D)

NO. 20.25

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
APPOINTING TEMPORARY JUDGE
UNDER CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT, RULE 2.810(D)

Cristian Arrieta, attorney at law, is hereby appointed under the exception provided in California Rules of Court, rule 2.810(d), to serve on August 14, 2020 as a temporary judge of the Superior Court of California, County of Ventura in all cases assigned pursuant to stipulation as provided in Article 6, section 21 of the California Constitution.

The court finds extraordinary circumstances exist for the appointment. The extraordinary circumstances are that Mr. Arrieta has served as a temporary judge for several years and has previously participated in the required continuing education. As of May 4, 2020, it has been three years since Mr. Arrieta participated in the mandatory bench conduct and demeanor training. However, given the current COVID-19 pandemic and the need for socially distancing, the court has not been able to provide or conduct the training. Mr. Arrieta meets all other qualifications to serve as a temporary judge and the conditions for use of a court-appointed temporary judge are met, as set forth in California Rules of Court, rule 10.742.

Acting Presiding Judge,
Ventura Superior Court
