

Superior Court, County of Ventura

NOTICE

April 26, 2022

Reduction in Court Reporter Services

Pursuant to Administrative Order 22.13, beginning May 2, 2022, the Ventura Superior Court will no longer provide court reporters for the following types of proceedings:

Civil – case settlements placed on the record; Asset Forfeiture; Harassment; Elder/Dependent Adult Abuse; Workplace Violence; Private Postsecondary School Violence; Gun Violence Restraining Orders; and Petitions for Order Prohibiting Abuse or Program Misconduct.

Family Law – case settlements placed on the record; Request for Orders; Ex Partes; and Domestic Violence Restraining Orders.

Probate – all matters.

Juvenile – Status Conferences for Termination of Parental Rights (T) cases.

Any party may arrange at their own expense for a reporter to be present at a hearing listed above. A party that has been granted a fee waiver may make a written request for a court reporter, in advance, for a hearing listed above. (See Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.956(c) for more information).
